Welcome to one of the rare books that publishes a yearly almanac of Electional Astrology dates together with a Moon Void of Course Calendar. I first became aware of the power that Electional astrology holds after researching 3 years worth of radionics research. To my amazement after matching the dates of my most successful radionics broadcasts to Electional astrology dates, I found that the most successful radionics dates would always occur when the Electional astrology date matched that of the type of radionics broadcast I had put up. Hence I came to the conclusion that various celestial and planetary force fields flowing all around us can be amplified using radioinc technology. It is my hope that this knowledge can be used for those also seeking to find the perfect date to make any event or plan a success.

About Electional Astrology

Electional astrology is also commonly referred to as event astrology or ephemeral elections. This book deals primarily with ephemeral elections which is planning for certain times in the future that are most favorable to successful outcomes. This simplified branch of astrology has traditionally been used to locate the most appropriate time to take a trip, make a talisman, plan a wedding or business related practices. Speaking from personal experience, I have found electional astrology aspects work very well with radionics, putting up the radionic rate at the right electional aspect can greatly increase the effect of a radionics device.

Electional Astrology is great if you don't want to use or can't understand the complications of astrology. The power of the moon's aspects in electional astrology reach their maximum energy just after the full moon and again just after the new moon. Another tip on electional astrology aspects is the very first hour the aspect begins is the best time to start something new for maximum success.

The History of Electional Astrology

Electional astrology was used by the Babylonians around the 16th century BCE. This was then passed on down to the Egyptians, Persians and Indians. Indians made the most use of electional astrology. Vedic astrologers early on used a sophisticated form of electional astrology called Muhurta (Muhurat). This was used to find the perfect times for the following -

- Travel
- Warfare
- Yajnas
- Marriages
- Filmmaking

Modern electional astrology as we understand it today comes mainly from book five of Dorotheus of Sidon's treatises in Greek Carmen Astrologicum from the first Century CE. This treatise is the oldest known in existence on electional astrology.

How to Use Electional Astrology

Electional astrology planning utilizes 2 simple steps.

1: The date of a plan or event is first planned sometime in the future.

2: Next a time and date most auspicious for the plan or event is plotted occurring within a general timeframe.

The method of choosing the best date is based on the positions of the moon, stars and planets and their position at various times. Each celestial body's particularly position represents a particular type of condition most likely to occur. The type of plan or event taking place is most likely to be successful if the celestial body's position is in tune or harmony with the event or plan taking place. Simply put, choosing a date based on the position of celestial bodies occurring in the sky at the moment the event takes place can lead to favorable outcomes when matched with the type of event taking place. It is simply an horary chart designed for a certain time in the future.

Making Talismans and Seals

Ephemeral elections have been used since ancient times to create seals and talismans. With careful planning, these items become imbued with the properties of the auspicious date at the time they were made. Instructions are commonly found throughout medieval literature.

The following pages give Electional astrology times and dates. For maximum effect, putting goals into action during the first 45 minutes as the aspect is just starting always yields the best results. The following information about the aspects of the moon has been taken from the ancient text of the 1676 edition of Ramesey's Astrologie Restored p.128-9 and the 'Aphorismes of Bethem' (Henry Coley's Key to the Whole Art of Astrology (1676) p341-3). All Electional Aspect times shown in this almanac are Noon Greenwich Time
